

CHINESE DRYWALL ALERT

Newspapers, television shows and politicians are reporting that the presence of CHINESE DRYWALL in your home can contribute to poor indoor air quality and make you sick.

CHINESE DRYWALL INSPECTIONS are available now. We will provide you with straight forward and honest information regarding conditions observed in your home or business. We will not mislead you or harm you with bogus tests, miracle cures or burden you with expensive laboratory fees. In fact, the State of Florida Attorney General wants to here from you if you think you have been victimized by fraudulent claims regarding CHINESE DRYWALL at, <http://www.myfloridalegal.com/newsrel.nsf/newsreleases/948E4030762178D3852575A1005823E7>.

Don't forget that CHINESE DRYWALL is not the only condition that may be present in your home that can affect your health.

HIDDEN MOLD has already been proven to have contaminated drywall in many homes across America. Many of the reported illnesses and symptoms are the same as for CHINESE DRYWALL.

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) states that " Evidence continues to emerge showing poor indoor air quality can trigger acute health problems, and asthma attacks, sometimes life threatening".

Don't make the mistake of assuming that CHINESE DRYWALL is to blame for every unpleasant odor, allergic reaction or illness in your home. MOLD TESTING is readily available to you now. It may even be covered by your insurance.
